Submitted to the Inspector General of Police in Mysore,

Bangalore.

I beg to submit that, as per kind orders of the Inspector General of Police, I started for Madras by the mail train on Wednesday the 20th instant and reached the place the next morning

In the afternoon I went to the office of the Commissioner of police and with the letter of introduction furnished to me I interviewed the Commissioner Mr. C.B.Cunningham. I requested him to enlighten me with regard to the Police arrangements made there in connection with H.E.H. the Nizam of Hyderabad's visit to Madras City.

I was given to understand that no special arrangements were made, that half a dozen men were placed to guard the quarters outside, that there was the usual regulation and control of traffic wherever H.E.H. went, that the local C.I.D. officers and men were on the move keeping watch over suspects, strangers and others, as usual, that a Sergeant was deputed to pilot in a motor car wherever H.E.H. went, that the usual Police arrangements were made whenever H.E.H. visited places of interest and importance, and the police were to get to know before hand about the programme of visit and do the needful. Beyond this nothing more was done. The Commissioner of Police, I beg to submit, was all kind and courteous to me.

The next day, that is, on Friday the 22nd instant I went to the office of the Deputy Inspector General of Police, Railways and C.I.D. and paid an informal visit. I saw Khan Bahadur Abdul Karim Saheb, Deputy Superintendent of Police, Railways and C.I.D. who introduced me to Mr. O.G.Adolphus, Assistant to the Inspector General of Police who in turn introduced me to Mr. J.Elliott, Personal Assistant to the D.I.G.

I exchanged ideas and views with these officers. I was given to understand that the Madras Government was going to have a separate special branch (Political C.I.D.) and the crime department would be seprated from the Political Department, that this change would be coming into force next month. I asked Mr. Elliott if there was any book or Manual on the S.B.subject and I was told that a book was under preparation and would be received in a few months. Mr. Elliott was kind enough to ask one of his subordinates to take me round his office and show me the several departments of work.

The C.I.D. there, is worked with the aid of some 7 Inspectors, 12 Sub Inspectors, 12 Head Constables and 12 Constables. The officers interest themselves in investigating cases of forgery, uttering counterfeit coins, cases of cheating extending over a wide area, cases of burglary, cases of Gang dacoities extending over more than one district, sensational cases of murder where clues towards the detection of culprits are not readly accessible to the local police, etc., The - investigation into these offences are generally handed over by the District Officers.

Some two Sub Inspectors have been specially trained in the detection of forged notes by having undergone practical course in the manufacture etc of the notes.

Assistant Superintendent of Police, Railways and C.I.D
